

Villa Price €200,000 8814

- Spain Malaga Tolox

Property Description

Spectacular hillside villa with superb views. There are 3 large bedrooms, one ensuite, with separate family bathroom plus a guest toilet. The large kitchen is fully equipped and a spacious dining and living area includes a featured built in fireplace. An added benefit is an underbuild which could be converted to an apartment. The terraced area also has panoramic views and the large swimming pool with Roman steps gets sun all day. Being off-grid, the house has full self-sufficient energy of solar panels, wind turbine and if required in winter, a large economy generator. It is situated approximately 4 kms north of Tolox village, with about 2kms of unmade mountain road. Ideal for country pursuits or a great location for quiet "get away".
