Property Description

This family house was built for the current owners, by the same architect of Villa Lara, using the finest materials to make this house a tasteful, peaceful and high quality retreat with frontal sea view, on the higher floors.

With all the privacy one can enjoy the very well-kept garden, feeling the pleasant sea breeze in the middle of the lush green nature of the prestigious Quinta da Marinha South, without relying on any condominium or community expenses.

The house has its own SPA, game room, office, among others on the garden level and a swimming pool facing south.

The spacious balcony of the living room and dining room, show the amazing garden, which features an outdoor living space and BBQ area.

4 master bedrooms, 2 offices, laundry room, garage lined with granite and marble and also an apartment with another master bedroom, separated from the main house, are connected by a beautiful Andalusian Patio.

Right in the middle of nature, between the beach and the mountains, located in the most privileged area of Cascais, Quinta da Marinha, just 24 km from Lisbon, near the golf course, equestrian
