Property Description

This grand villa dates back to the 18th century, in Renaissance style, it is on a hilltop boasting stunning views over the surrounding vineyards and gentle hills. The large estate consists of the splendid villa, a stone built country house, a 16th century chapel. It is situated 5 minutes away from the town of Gaiole in Chianti. The villa measures 2,000 sq m and boasts a large facade with a large staircase. It is on three levels plus the partially underground floor where there are the wine cellars that are partially built in the rock. The cellars have vaulted ceilings. On the main floor there is a large lounge with fireplace, kitchen, dining room, bathroom, study room, and various storage rooms. On the first floor there is a living room with fireplace, kitchen, another dining room, double size lounge with fireplace, bathroom, and seven bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms. On the top floor there is a lounge with kitchenette, another living room with fireplace, another kitchen, five bedrooms, of which two with en-suite bathrooms, two other bathrooms.
